Our family/church believes deeply that the one thing our nation's children need most is a Habit of Prayer. One of the groups we support has submitted a Coloring book to one of your buyers Vincent Iannacito. We hope you might forward this letter to him.

Dear Mr. Iannacito:

We are asking you to reconsider stocking the two coloring books "Teach Us To Pray" and "What the Bible Says about Beauty and Strength" submitted by the Christian Child Care Coalition." Stocking these books is exactly the type of thing that would reveal your corporate heart and sincere respect for your customers.
