

A group of my friends once
convinced another
friend that a week
in London really
was eight days.

He really
believed it.

(That was when we were all young...before the internet.)

with the heart
one believes

Romans 10:10

Verse from the NET Bible

The kind of believing God
is offering is not like that at all.

It is NOT something
anyone can do without God's help.

Why not
ask God
to touch
your HEART
and help
you believe.

It is the only way.
