

Then there is the listening walk where you take twenty steps and close your eyes until you hear something. Then take twenty more steps.

